Tour Overview

The tour begins in Tokyo: the beating, neon heart of Japan. The first of many rides on the shinkansen bullet train then whisks you into mountainous Nagano, where you'll spend the night at a shukubo temple lodging, try vegetarian Buddhist cuisine and search for the key to paradise in the pitch-dark tunnels underneath Zenko-ji - one of Japan's most important temples.

Visit the small town of Obuse to admire a stunning collection of woodblock prints at the Hokusai museum. This will be followed by a visit to the "Black Crow Castle", Matsumoto's magnificent original samurai fortress. After crossing the Northern Japanese Alps, you'll experience warm Japanese hospitality at a traditional ryokan inn in Takayama, where the old-town streets hide sake breweries, craft shops and morning markets loaded with fresh produce.

Kyoto and Kanazawa offer a glimpse of traditional Japan - one a magnificent former capital with an astounding 17 World Heritage Sites, the other a small but beautifully preserved city with lamp-lit streets and one of the best gardens in Japan. Walking around the Gion district in Kyoto you might be lucky enough to spot a geisha in full regalia. Further west you'll visit Hiroshima, where the Peace Memorial Park offers a sobering reminder of Japan's darkest hour. Hiroshima today is a vibrant, cosmopolitan city teeming with life and optimism. Be sure to try the region's favourite savoury pancake: okonomiyaki.

Finally, you'll visit Kurashiki - a real gem of a town that often goes unseen by foreign visitors but whose beautiful merchant canal district, wealth of excellent museums and cosmopolitan atmosphere make it well worth the trip.

Day by day

Many of our customers choose to arrive a day or two early to get over jet-lag and get the most out of the tour. Whatever the case, we will be happy to make arrangements to suit your needs.

Day 1 Tokyo

The tour begins in Tokyo. On arrival you will be met at the airport by your driver and travel by shared shuttle bus to the hotel.

Our hotel is in Tokyo's historic Asakusa district. Close by you will find the Tokyo Skytree and Senso-ji Temple and have easy access to the subway and over-ground links to the whole city. There is certainly plenty to keep you occupied if you arrive early.

We will have a group meeting in the evening, giving you the chance to meet your fellow group members and tour leader. After the meeting, if you feel like it you can head out with your tour leader and group to one of the excellent nearby restaurants for an introduction to Japan's outstanding cuisine and dining etiquette.

Day 2 Tokyo (B)

Today your tour leader will take you on a walking tour which will include Meiji Jingu Shrine, Hamarikyu Gardens and a visit to the traditional Asakusa area. Of course, there are so many fantastic things to do and see in this amazing city: museums, gardens, and shrines. You should feel free, if you want, to head out and do your own thing – your leader will be happy to assist with any plans.

Day 3 Nagano (B)

Today you'll leave the big city behind and make your way to the city of Nagano, located at the foot of the Japanese Alps. Nagano is famous for hosting the 1998 Winter Olympics and is also the location of Zenko-ji – one of Japan's most important temples. This afternoon will be yours to explore the temple and the wider city. We also recommend joining your tour leader for a lunch of freshly made soba noodles (a local speciality) before relaxing at the local hot spring baths. Tonight, you will be spending the night at one of Zenko-ji's affiliated shukubo lodgings. Accommodation will be in simple, Japanese-style rooms with tatami mats, sliding screen doors and comfortable futon mattresses.

Day 4 Matsumoto (B)

On day four, you will rise early to attend optional morning prayers at Zenko-ji – a unique and spiritual experience. After the ceremony, you will return to your lodgings for an elaborate breakfast of shojin ryori (traditional vegetarian Buddhist cuisine) before visiting the quaint town of Obuse and the Hokusai Museum with its superb collection of original ukiyo-e woodblock prints. After lunch, you will make your way to Matsumoto, another alpine city famous for its impressive original samurai castle – the "Black Crow." This afternoon, we recommend visiting the castle and its nearby museum.

Day 5 Takayama (B, D)

You will continue your journey through the Japanese Alps on day five as you make your way to Takayama, a town famed for the high quality of its traditional crafts. There are many options to keep you busy in the town today, among which you could opt to join your leader for a wander along the town's riverside then through the renowned historical merchants' quarter, dipping into sake breweries, specialist woodcarvers' shops and soy sauce makers. You can also easily head off on your own to a number of sights, including the festival float museum and the marvellous Showakan museum, for a hands-on, retro experience from the early 20th century. Tonight, you'll be staying at a simple minshuku (family-run inn) with Japanese-style rooms, onsen baths and a lovely multi-course kaiseki dinner included.

Day 6 Takayama (B)

With another day to explore Takayama we recommend making the local morning market your first port of call. Your leader can also arrange a guided tour around the Jinya – the only Edo Period government house left in Japan. Later, you can join your tour leader on a visit to the Hida no Sato folk village, an open-air museum filled with traditional thatched-roof farmhouses, before heading back to the old town where you could try a spot of sake-tasting at the local breweries to round off the day. Dinner is not included this evening, so we highly recommend going out for a taste of the local delicacy, Hida beef, which is every bit as delicious as its Kobe cousin!

Day 7 Kanazawa (B)

This morning, board our private coach to Kanazawa, one of Japan's best preserved traditional cities. Situated on the Japan Sea coast, the city is also home to one of Japan's top three landscape gardens. Like Kyoto, its historical monuments were considered sufficiently important by Allied Forces to escape air raids. This has notably preserved the atmosphere of pre-war Japan in certain historic districts of the city. This afternoon we recommend strolling the Nagamachi samurai quarter, the Chaya geisha district, and getting some super-fresh sushi from the Omicho Fish Market. No visit to Kanazawa would be complete without a visit to the city's star attraction: Kenrokuen. Ranked as one of Japan's top three landscape gardens, Kenrokuen is truly stunning and well worth your time today.

Day 8 Kyoto (B)

A highlight of any journey to Japan, Kyoto was Japan's capital for over a millennium and is home to an incredible 17 World Heritage Sites, including temples, shrines and some beautiful gardens. Your tour leader will be sure to take you to one of these today – perhaps the incredible structure of Kiyomizu Temple with its commanding city views – before you enjoy a guided tour of the traditional Gion geisha district, where you might be fortunate enough to spot a geisha as dusk falls.

Day 9 Kyoto (B)

On your second day in Kyoto you'll be taken around Kyoto by your tour leader who will put together a specific itinerary to show you some of the city's hidden gems based on the group's interest, the season and the weather. Alternatively, you can opt to head out alone and discover them for yourself. Your tour leader will be happy to help you make plans if there is something specific you'd like to see. Popular options include the exquisite Golden Pavilion of Kinkaku-ji or the spiritual forest trail created by the ten thousand red gates of Fushimi Inari. Nishiki food market is a haven for foodies' or you may wish to further explore Gion's traditional teahouse district – Kyoto has so much to offer that you'll be spoilt for choice.

Day 10 Hiroshima (B,D)

With two days in Hiroshima you will have ample time to explore this exciting city and its beautiful neighbour – the island of Miyajima. Your tour leader will take you through the modern heart of the city to the beautiful Peace Park, with its many monuments dedicated to the A-Bomb victims. Hiroshima will forever be remembered for the tragic events of 1945 – and whilst you should certainly reserve some time to visit the museum there are plenty of additional options. With world-class art galleries, an excellent manga library, a beautifully restored castle and the lively Honmachi shopping arcade, you will be spoilt for choice as to how to spend the rest of the afternoon.

This evening, your tour leader will take you out for an okonomiyaki dinner – the local savoury pancake meal that Hiroshima is famous for!

Day 11 Hiroshima (B)

On day two of your stay in Hiroshima you might like to join your tour leader for a ferry ride across the bay to Miyajima, a beautiful island on the Seto Inland Sea. Miyajima is home to a tiny, traditional community, a friendly resident population of deer, and Itsukushima Shrine – whose "floating" torii gate is one of the most iconic images of Japan. A cable car can whisk you up over the island's primeval forest to outstanding viewpoints above the surrounding sea. For car lovers, you may prefer to stay in the city, where your tour leader can arrange a morning visit to the Mazda plant, its museum and assembly line. Whatever you decide, Hiroshima is sure to keep you entertained for a second day.

Day 12 Kurashiki (B)

An early morning bullet train ride will take us onto Kurashiki. This wonderful town is a great place to admire a preserved Edo period commercial centre – in the city's canal-lined Bikan district. Just out of town you have the option (weather permitting) to cycle through rice paddies and villages across the Kibi plain.

Kurashiki is rarely included on first-time itineraries to Japan, which we think is a real shame, as it's a truly lovely town with a fascinating history. The preserved canal district forms the centre of the town, with streets lined with traditional shops, cafés and superb museums housed in white-walled, black-tiled storehouses from the Edo era. The Ohara Museum is the most impressive of all the local museums, housing the first permanent collection of Western art ever to be exhibited in Japan. Today you will also have the option to relax in this historical district or join the cycling trip with your tour leader through one of the most beautiful and historical paved cycle paths in Japan, taking you past rice fields, burial mounds, local temples and Buddhist cemeteries.

Day 13 Tokyo (B)

Today you will speed back to Tokyo on the shinkansen bullet train, perhaps catching a glimpse of Mount Fuji on your way past – if you're lucky! This is your chance to do a bit of last-minute souvenir shopping, and to visit any of the sights you may have missed the first time around. Today would be a great time to see Tokyo from the top of the Skytree, the tallest tower in the world at 634 m (2,080 ft). You could catch some sublime greenery amongst the chaos of Shinjuku at Shinjuku Gyoen Park, arguably Tokyo's finest, or even rent out a karaoke booth and sing your heart out with your new friends. Though dinner is not included tonight, we highly recommend joining your group for a farewell meal at one of your tour leader's favourite restaurants in the city, as a great way to toast the end of a fantastic trip.

Day 14 Tokyo (B)

On the morning of day 14, it's time to say goodbye to Japan and hop on the limousine bus to the airport for your departure flight. We hope you have a good journey home.

Our tours aim to be as flexible as possible, so there is no set-in-stone itinerary for each day. You will be provided on the ground with Day-by-Day sheets and the tour leader will outline what they are going to do each day in detail. If you would like to break away from the group and do something different, they will be available to offer advice, and help you plan your day.
