Tour Overview

Have a limited amount of time and want to get the most out of your visit to Japan? If so, this is the tour for you. In between stays in Japan’s two greatest cities, Tokyo and Kyoto, you’ll relax in hot springs, explore the beautiful Izu Peninsula, and make day trips to the fascinating historical sites of Nikko and Nara.

Starting with three nights in the hectic buzz that is Japan’s capital city, your tour leader will help you navigate the whirlwind - accompanying you on a boat trip down the Sumida River and a visit to the serene Hamarikyu Gardens and the Meiji Shrine. In the evening, we recommend dinner at a traditional izakaya restaurant.

During your stay in Tokyo, you’ll also head out of the capital to muse on the “see no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil” monkey carvings in Nikko’s extravagant shrine and temple complex of Tosho-gu.

Next you’ll stay in a superb ryokan with a variety of hot spring baths to choose from on the stunning Izu Peninsula – an area of national park whose views of Mount Fuji, sweeping coastlines and forested interior make it the perfect antidote to the unrelenting crowds of Japan’s cities.

An essential three-night stay in Kyoto will allow you to immerse yourself in the spirituality and traditions of Japan’s undisputed cultural heart. Here it seems as though every sliding door conceals a bewitching garden or a historic temple. You will have ample opportunity to explore several of these with your tour leader and a local guide. A real treat is in store when you meet a maiko, or apprentice geisha. These multi-talented traditional entertainers embody the mystery and refinement that Japanese culture is famous for, and this is a privileged chance to be in the company of one of these remarkable performers in person.

Concluding your trip with an excursion to Nara, you’ll no doubt feel dwarfed by the spectacular giant Buddha of Todai-ji, and love feeding senbei crackers to the resident deer in this ancient capital.

Throughout the tour you’ll stay in superior-grade accommodation, enjoying the very best in Japanese cuisine and travelling by first-class rail and private transport.

Day 1 Tokyo (D)

Many of our customers choose to arrive a day or two early to get over jet-lag and get the most out of the tour. Whatever the case, we will be happy to make arrangements to suit your needs.

Welcome to Japan! Upon arrival at Tokyo’s Narita or Haneda Airport you will be met by your driver and escorted by private car to your hotel in the Asakusa district. Your tour leader will be waiting to welcome you in the lobby when you arrive. Asakusa is Tokyo’s most traditional quarter, full of lively market stalls and home to the city’s oldest temple, Senso-ji. This is a great place to begin exploring the city on your first afternoon. Later this evening, your tour leader will give a full trip briefing over an included welcome drink, then take you out for a first-night meal with your group, where you’ll get a great introduction to Japanese food and etiquette – as well as some exciting information about the days ahead!

Day 2 Tokyo (B)
Today’s tour of Tokyo will include a cruise down the Sumida River from Asakusa, arriving at the lovely Hamarikyu Gardens, former property of generations of Tokugawa shoguns. Take traditional refreshments in the beautiful teahouse, surrounded by the garden’s. In the afternoon we’ll use a private coach to visit Meiji Shrine, set in the midst of a wooded park, then wander the neon skyscraper district of Shinjuku, stopping to admire the view from the top of the Metropolitan Government Building. The evening will be free for you to explore the city under your own steam – your tour leader will have plenty of suggestions on how best to spend your time.

Day 3 Nikko (B)
Today is an excursion day to Nikko: enchanting resting-place of Japan’s most important shogun, Tokugawa Ieyasu, and famous throughout Japan for its dazzlingly ornate architecture. After a wonderful train journey through the countryside to Tokyo’s north, you’ll wander amongst elaborate shrines and temples set in a Japanese cedar forest, admire the carving of the “see-no-evil” monkeys and cross the famous vermilion Shinkyo Bridge, gracefully arching its way over the Daiya River. Hopefully there will be time to peruse the shops in pleasant Nikko town, before we hop on the train and make our way back to the big city. Railway tickets, entrance fees and the services of an expert local guide will all be included in the tour today, and of course, your tour leader will be with you throughout.

Day 4 Izu Peninsula (B, L, D)
Today you will hop aboard a private coach bound for the Izu Peninsula, a strip of lush, mountainous land about 100 km (60 miles) to the southwest of Tokyo.

We’ll be stopping en route at the MOA Museum of Art and taking in the dramatic scenery from the Jikokku Pass, which on clear days offers views of Mount Fuji.

For your two nights on the peninsula you will be staying at a luxurious ryokan, a traditional Japanese inn set in a beautiful woodland grove. Here you’ll sleep on comfortable futon mattresses laid out on tatami mats, and have the chance to take advantage of the ryokan’s impressive selection of natural hot spring baths. A top-quality kaiseki (multi-course, haute cuisine) dinner will be included on both nights of your stay.

Day 5 Izu Peninsula (B, D)
On day five, your adventure continues as you further explore the stunning Jogasaki coast with visits to Mount Omuro and the picturesque harbour-side town of Shimoda. Again travelling by private coach, we’ll ensure an early enough return to the ryokan for you to enjoy some relaxing down-time in your beautiful rooms and the soothing baths, before a second night of exquisite kaiseki meal.

Day 6 Kyoto (B, D)
Today will be a varied travel day, as we make our way by private coach to the northern end of the Izu Peninsula. If the weather is clear, you’ll be able to enjoy spectacular views of Mount Fuji as you make the trip across the bay.

From Shimizu you’ll hop aboard the shinkansen bullet train and speed west at up to 320 kph (200 mph) to Kyoto, formerly Japan’s imperial capital for over a millennium. Our mid-afternoon arrival in Kyoto will allow you some down-time before your tour leader takes the group to a favourite local restaurant for an included dinner.

Day 7 Kyoto (B)
You’ll have the services of a knowledgeable Kyoto local as well as your tour leader today, as you explore the ancient temples, shrines, gardens and teahouses of this magnificent city. A visit to the stunning Golden Pavilion at Kinkaku-ji, a few Zen moments at Ryoan-ji’s famous rock garden and exploration of the bamboo groves of Arashiyama – just a few highlights of today’s tour.

Kyoto is well known as a centre of geisha culture, and later this afternoon, you will have an exclusive audience with a maiko (trainee geisha), during which you’ll be able to watch a dance performance, ask questions, take photos and catch a rare, more intimate glimpse into a famously secretive and fascinating culture.

Day 8 Nara (B,D)
Join your tour leader for a tour of nearby Nara, a well-preserved city with a small-town atmosphere and many historical treasures. Highlights today will include seeing the giant Buddha, housed in the largest wooden building in the world, and feeding shika senbei crackers to the vast herd of friendly deer that inhabit expansive Nara Park.

Back in Kyoto you’ll enjoy a farewell dinner with your group at one of the city’s superb restaurants – a great chance to talk over your experiences and say goodbye to your companions and tour leader.

Day 9 Kyoto (B)
The following morning you’ll travel by shared taxi to Kansai Airport for your flight home. Have a safe journey home!

Our tours aim to be as flexible as possible, so there is no set-in-stone itinerary for each day. You will be provided on the ground with Day-by-Day sheets and the tour leader will outline what they are going to do each day in detail. In addition, please note that dietary requirements (such as vegetarianism, gluten-free diets and even some allergies) are very uncommon in Japan so meals for those with specific requirements may be simpler and less varied.

On this tour you’ll stay at a number of Japanese style accommodation, you will be served a traditional dinner, as well as a Japanese breakfast in the morning.

Your tour leader
Our tours are led on the ground by a fluent English speaker, now a resident of Japan and able to speak Japanese. They are there to ensure that you get the most out of your trip and that the whole adventure goes smoothly. The tour leader travels with the group and stays at the same hotels and ryokan, so please feel free to ask for help or advice at any time.

Your tour leader is not a guide so may not know every historical detail of every shrine, temple or palace, yet they are available pretty much all day every day and will even be happy to accompany tour members out at night on occasion!

Please note that the tour leader reserves the right to deny participation in an activity if they feel that it is in the safety or best interest of you and/or any other members of the group. Similarly, dangerous weather conditions may lead to cancellation of such an activity.

Luggage
We highly recommend that to make your stay more enjoyable you pack reasonably light. Large suitcases will be an inconvenience to you as you will have to carry your bags for short distances at times and some stations do not have escalators or elevators/lifts.

For ease of transit, we will be forwarding your luggage on one occasion and you will be without your main baggage for 1 night in Kyoto.

You will need a small overnight bag (e.g. backpack) for use when we forward our main bags to the next location.

Please note that the included meet-and-greet and airport transfer to the first hotel is ONLY available from the two Tokyo airports. Add-ons back to Tokyo can easily be arranged. Please speak to your travel consultant about it.

Check-in
Upon arrival you will probably be tired after a long international flight. Please note that rooms at the hotel are only available from 3pm.

Hotels in Japan operate strict check-in policies. If you have an early arrival you can either book an extra night for any-time check-in, or the hotel will be happy to securely store your luggage for you whilst you go for a drink or explore the local area.

The tour leader will be staying at the first hotel for two nights before the tour starts so they will be available for advice if you choose to book pre tour nights. We recommend booking at least one extra night to check in and relax before the tour begins.
